

Welcome

This 2008/9 Wikipedia DVD Selection is a free, hand-checked, non-commercial selection from Wikipedia, targeted around the UK National Curriculum and useful for much of the English speaking world. It has about 5500 articles (as much as can be fitted on a DVD with good size images) and is about the size of a twenty volume encyclopaedia (34,000 images and 20 million words).

Wikipedia is the free encyclopaedia anyone can edit, and develops accurate content but suffers vandalism. Wikipedia is not necessarily a childsafe environment and has "adult" content. This selection of topics have been carefully chosen, tidied up, and checked for vandalism and suitability (by SOS Children volunteers, whom we gratefully acknowledge). We also gratefully acknowledge the tens of thousands of contributors to Wikipedia who have written and researched the content in the first place, including this year adding content where gaps in the school curriculum were not covered.

Usage

This disc will run in any computer with a DVD-ROM and web browser. Simply open the disk and open the index.htm file.

This DVD-ROM is the result of collaboration between SOS Children UK and volunteer editors of Wikipedia. All content is provided under free licences (such as the GFDL or CC) or is part of the public domain with the exception of the Wikipedia and SOS Children UK logos, which are trademarks of their respective owners.
